All i see are posts trying to shoot one method down for M O A S S over another. Stop rushing your going to fud yourself out and lose faith. There is only one way to help accomplish a better gamestop and that's hold. Obviously DRS your shares we all know the fukery that goes on with these brokers and MMs..owning your shares creates no issues for yourself or your tendies.. cs have a sell option, yes a sell option its been discussed on ss already. Not sure where everyone's heads are at but from my little corner I can see you all losing your heads slowly and ur losing focus... just hold.. what ever happens will happen just let it play out
