I don't post that much. Comment a little more. But I do enjoy being an ape. An old ape but ape none the less. I don't know much bout investing but I do have life experience. Let me share:

I trust the dd. I trust our resolve. Everyone who is hyperventilating over every machinations on our subs needs to relax. In other words look at the facts.

Everything on price right now is fake. We hodl for moon and beyond. We dont need to watch stock every min of the day. Yes its fun, until its not. Step away- be with family, live your life. If u want to nuy more. Set a buy alert and just wait for the message.

Msm is lying. Big surprise. So why are u watching

Its all a reality tv show right now. If you want to be entertained get on the subs. Learn a little bit from apes you believe in. Enjoy the drama. But dont ket it consume you.

Look I'm high and incredibly smooth brained. Unless GME announces something itself. I dont care. It's probably a lie

I have full faith and trust in RC. I enjoy his memes and tweets. Wish the kitty would come back soon. DD is strong. No one has counter DD that holds up( I guess we are a cult that supports terrorists now). Have a sense of humor. Everything will fall in place. Remember 4D chess. We just have to buy, hodl and drs. Thats it. Let the wrinkle brain apes do what they do. Smooth brains do what u do. Let GS do what its going to do. RC will do what he do. As long as he don't sell and run I don't.

Just keep it simple,have fun, take breaks(aka live life), and above all believe in your decision. All in or all out. If you have conviction there is no fear. No fear- fud cant bother you. BE PATIENT and enjoy the fun!!
