

Title: What would be a smart call play for gme? Something that doesn't decay badly but not too hard on the bank!

Bought 17 more gme! Thinking about buying 25 more or doing some calls.. if I play with some calls, what would be a good bet as far as time decay. Was thinking some 500c 49d. I normally scalp the spy and decay doesn't mean jack shit to me. In and out within seconds 10x. With gme, I'd like to sit on some calls. Any non financial retard advice is welcome.
