Sorry SHFs and FUDsters, I'm not selling. I believe in this company. I bought on the way down. During the earnings call, with the worst FUD they could throw at us, I bought more under 80, then I bought more on the way up. Everything Gamestop has done since the call has me hyped. Everything the media has said to discredit GME has me hyped.

They say invest only what you can afford to lose. Well, I can afford to take these shares to my grave. I don't care if the whole market crashes. S&P; wiped a year of gains, but gamestop over 100 is still up 25% from the absolute depths of FUD from only a few months ago.

So I say to you, SHFs, did you invest what you could afford to lose?

Give me phone numbers, or give me death. That's the only way you're getting them.
