I don't want to drs because I day trade and I need all my cash available to be successful (lucky). Having said that, am I helping the cause? The more I think about it, the more I wonder if we can overload the fudality's and Robinhoods of the world. All those drs's that you did plus a flood of orders thru regular apps, wouldn't that help? Disclaimer- I'm an idiot and no one should reply to this post. I'm long Ryan Cohen.
