NOT FINANCIAL ADVICE:

I've been trying to accomplish this from different angles for months, but today was a breakthrough. Your success will hinge on broker willingness/policy (as it always has) BUT here's how to box them in, demand transparency, and get what you want. My broker is Pacific Premier Trust. Don't dismiss this until you try.

1. Call your broker, state your intent to transfer your IRA GME Shares to a Computershare IRA.
2. Explain that you'd like to transfer your IRA, but based on some complexity with the receiving end (CS, who's not a typical broker), you'd like to MERGE A 3-WAY CALL between the broker and Computershare.
3. Add Computershare to the call (1-800-522-6645), verify your ID and speak with a rep. Then merge the call.
4. CS CAN ELECTRONICALLY RECIEVE IRA SHARES (AND SUBSEQUENTLY, HOLD THEM IN AN IRA ACCOUNT) VIA A DTC W/T (WITHDRAWAL BY TRANSFER) TRANSMISSION. They will need to include some other basic info (your TIN/SSN, the GME CUSIP, etc.). CS's DTC# (destination) is 7807. BROKERS KNOW HOW TO DO THIS TRANSFER. The CS rep answered some other questions which my broker had as well, because this is not a typical type of transfer--that's what they need to realize. It's an IRA transfer than needs to be "pushed" from your broker, rather than "pulled" from CS (like a broker typically would).

*FINALLY my broker has confirmed they can do this, and it is NOT taxable. I've been trying to navigate this for months, but the 3-way call is what unlocked this and prevented them from blaming it on CS, or lying that it was not possible or taxable.

Because my current accounts with CS are not IRA accounts, this will create a new IRA account holding GME SHARES AT CS (confirmed this with multiple CS reps now).

To complete the process, my broker simply needs a form filled out with a letter of intent to proceed (this will be broker specific--it's for their own records). I'm working through this now.

I'll confirm once fully completed, but it's the most promising lead/path I've seen in months, and I wanted to get the word out ASAP.

Try this out and let me know what you learn based on your brokers.
