Bought in to GME over a year ago because the price was right and the things I read about how a Company I grew up to was being screwed to line the same people's pocket who killed the market before. But as I watched and learned I realized that it was way worse than I imagined. That's my extent on the stock market. On that note on Thursday an announcement came out "Game stop is looking to give shares for dividends" that news was awesome made me want to buy more. As we seen most did that after hours as the price blew up $25. Dollars a share. The more DD that I read that night was even more and more inviting to buy more as well as the volume showed others felt it. Moral to this is I'm by no means smart just look at my spelling and you will see I'm not lying. If I can see how important the news was and then watch The next day when everybody was even more jacked to the tits about the news. The price goes from $193. Dollars to $160. Dollars you would think the news earlier was That GME might be closing stores. That's how the It dropped. So if I can see this bull shit manipulation/steeling/cheating it's funny the people who are paid to see it are blind. Kinda like how Hunters laptop was given to the FBI 3 years ago and now that they found out it was all true they can't seem to find it. Anybody else see a theme here? People may hate me for saying this but the government needs torn down and rebuilt from the bottom up. Thank you for reading hopefully this makes sense to someone other than me. At this point I don't care if I never sell as long as these corrupt fuks get what they deserve and it's 4 walls and a roommates who got screwed in 2008. Get em
