With the confirmation that gamestop will hand out split stock dividends, make sure to check how your broker will handle that. If you're 100% Computershare you don't have to worry, but other brokers might act like paying out in cash is the "recommended" approach.

Check the corporate actions page on your account and make sure your preference is set to stock dividend. If you can't find it, the support/FAQ should have a dedicated page for it.
