Long time Investor here in $GME.

Been holding / over leveraged to the tits since March 2021.

I've been seeing a troubling amount of posts lately on the narrative changing for Gamestop.

Originally I invested in this stock with the simple narrative that was being given ' Buy, Hold, Wait for a S-Q-U-E-E-Z-E'.

However as of late I've been under attack for this method of investing by quiet a few people.

1. GME DD called me an absolute idiot and laughed me out of their discord, saying that Gamestop has S-Q-U-E-E-Z-E-D already and it's a long play now for a potential $400 - $500 in 10 years.
2. Promoting people like Dave Lauer (For the record I love his movement on transparency in the markets) , however he also said there will be no M-O-A-S-S. I'm not here for a free market, I don't give a shit as I don't intend on ever investing in the corrupt market again after this but why is this narrative being pushed so viciously?
3. Documentaries, Jon Stewart ect, All saying the same narrative, the S-Q-U-E-E-Z-E is over, we won against wall street, they lost billions ect. When did this change? I was here for a M-O-A-S-S? Or at the very least a few grand per stock.

Now don't get me wrong, I'm not attacking either 3 of these points, but I thought the premise of the $GME play was simple, if you buy, hold and wait you'll get a S-Q-U-E-E-Z-E.

Now it seems to be ' if you buy, hold, and hope RC and friends make it into a good company, and hope that the US Government changes some rules, you might get a double return on your investment '.

I'm not saying free markets are a bad thing, but I was here for one thing and one thing only, a huge return.

Overall I feel kind of depressed by this whole thing now, like everyone here I'm at a loss in my investment and all I'm getting is ridiculed when I suggest we were going to S-Q-U-E-E-Z-E(Even worse by the people I thought were trying to make it happen, ie GME DD).

I'm hopelessly confused as of late, everythings being turned from a M-O-A-S-S/ S-Q-U-E-E-Z-E Narrative towards a ' Lets fight for a free market, lets go long on GME and hope we double our return in 10 years ect ect .

When did this all change?

(Edit: Even using words like S-Q-U-E-E-Z-E and M-O-A-S-S isn't allowed in my posts now ? WTF)
