So I figured after watching this drama unfold for I don't even know how long now, is it a year, is it two?! I don't even know anymore, I need to DRS my shares.

Being from Scotland I think this is slightly more complicated than US Apes, however, I'm hoping someone with prior experience could walk me through it.

Shares are currently sitting with Hargreaves. I have already opened an IBKR account so I think that's the first step.

Should I fund the account, purchase a share, wait for it to clear then initiate transfer to CS and then wait for my CS account? I don't particularly want to transfer all my GME shares to IBKR until I have a CS account to receive them.

Any help appreciated.
