Hey there! We do know some of those guys. Is there a question they p[osted you might have a question about? -Brandy

My question is really more so are they actually apart fo the GameStop NFT Team? They claim to be and I believe that they are, but there are potentially bad faith actors claiming that "they are scammers who are not actually apart of the team and they have fabricated their LinkedIn pages. GameStop has never verified their employment."

This is me paraphrasing what I've heard. I believe in GameStop and respect your privacy to work in silence! However, clearing this up would be mentally freeing! Thank you!

I completely understand your concerns! I checked with my team to verify if they're indeed

GM!

I have a simple question that I hope you can answer. Can you confirm or deny whether or not the following people are officially involved with GameStop?

@nftspike

Thank you!
