GME tripled the amount of shares authorized to dilute with. While the shares have not yet hit the markets, they are waiting there to be used at a time and in a way that will most benefit the GME board shareholders.

It was revealed that margin call requirements are at the discretion of the DTCC. If margin calls will adversely impact the DTCC they have the ability to choose not to margin call. This changes the landscape and impacts the viability that hedge funds will be margin called while they still have assets.
