Sounds like the jig is up. PFOF is Banned bc its over for Kenny. One of his side operations is going down to pay the tendie men and women of GME and now other MMs will be able to step in and compete for retail orders after it's obliterated. It's win win for everyone. It's probably already in Motion. That's why Kenny and friends are already looking for ways to make that money back through Crypto? It sounds like positive change is happening. Best stock in the world hands down. I aint NEVER leaving. INFINITY POOLER
