So I'm really trying to show you guys that the ones on top of this financial ecosystem are a few things:
1) a team, 2)cheaters, and 3) Not able to sit with us after this. They're thieves and bullies. I dislike both things with a passion. This affected our parents , our grandparents , and everyone around us. Globally.

So with that said, get the fuck in morty. Lets go for a ride.

Berkshire Hathaway, Inc. < insitutional ownership.

So we all know this is warren buffets baby. Well let's see if he sucks with his accounting.

I'm going to skip directly to the accounting errors so that I can start pumping these out at a higher rate. My time is limited and it's time to elevate my actions to no time wasted.

Only one investor has a holding on this fund.

Now i don't presume to know what the hell these guys are actually doing right. these are my thesis's that are welcome to be discussed and torn apart. Just be kind dammit.

What I am Trying to show with the list above is the "accounting error of 1,784,399.77[^] return on a position. But I'll break them down in quick style so you don't have to. I would like you to see like I see.

b.rock/vangaurd/buffet/citadel invest in the investors of companies they want to take over. Like tailored brands and mens warehouse. Or like comcast. Or like verizon. CEO pushed out and the business partners then have to figure out a bro like IFP advisors To hold the long term calls that were rolled DEEP ITM when they needed to cover the shorts. It's why IFP advisors has stupid shit like thsi in their holdings :

https://fintel.io/i/pathstone-family-office-llc < is the link to pathstone's holdings. Found a SHITLOAD of memestocks in their holdings. This many coincidences isn't coincidence. Palantir, allstate, ali baba, b of a , citigroup, comcast, disney, FIS (big one right here), JPM, mcdonalds, metlife(this one needs dug), moderna, netflix, nike, nvidia, pfizer, palantir, and verizon, among others.

<https://fintel.io/i/davenport-co-llc> is the link to davenports holdings. It seems to contain the list of this years "meme stocks" in there. including but not limited to CVS, CLOV, Pfizer, Moderna, Blackrock, Vangaurd, QQQ, SPY 500 (which lines up EXACTLY with QQQ), Visa, mcdonalds, activision blizzard, disney, tesla, among others. blah blah .. its one of them things that if you pull up the charts and compare.... you're going to see frogs. frogs, everywhere.
