If you do one thing today open TWITTER and simply read @ theroaringkitty @ Ryancohen and @ joinsuperleague twitter accounts concurrently and in chronological order.

They have been trying to tell GME apes, and the world their plans for over a year!

I won't respond to wut mean or Ape no understand. Why? Because I can't help if you cant follow directions.

READ the shit supplied from the chairman then we can discuss!

I'd love to expand on and put together some intelligent thoughts around this "theory" as I've been dissecting this for weeks! After today's tweets from GameStop, I felt I had to try harder to get this out!
