\[(mods, I wasn't sure how to flair this, I was looking for an education/data flair but it doesn't exist, please re-flair for me if it fits better in a different category, thanks in advance)\]

I found this little nugget recently. OG post name available below for the comment in the photo.

("Computershare is a COMPETITOR to the DTC! Comment Paper from 2008. DRS to Computershare is a big F U to DTC") -[cannot post link due to rules-OG post found on the super sub, sorry, rules r rules].

I post it for proof and not for any malicious intent. Please do not harass the commenter, just learn from his FUD so that you can be aware of what shills are promoting.

Learn to combat this type of FUD by looking into the facts yourself.
