

Title: So they had to leave Chicago for them to go public with this?

Author: disoriented_llama

Created 2022-07-06 15:23:03 UTC

Permalink: /r/TheGloryHodl/comments/vssjej/so_they_had_to_leave_chicago_for_them_to_go/

Url: <https://www.reddit.com/gallery/vsoep2>

Linked Post Content:

Brokers such as Robinhood and TD Ameritrade accept payment for order flow.

But retail investors have now brought these nefarious practices in the market to light.

Let's discuss it.

Chicago Tribune Says Citadel Securities' Dark Pool Targets Small Investors

JULY 5, 2022 / 3 COMMENTS

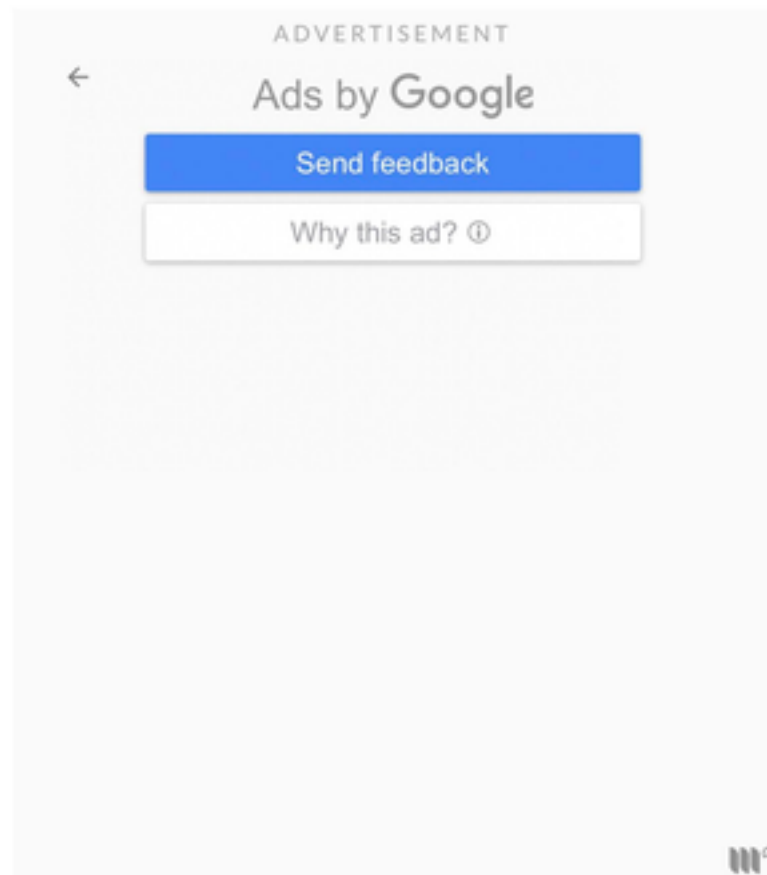

Market News: Citadel Securities Dark Pools exposed

The Chicago Tribune just published a piece explaining exactly what retail investors have been warning the SEC about.

Citadel Securities' dark pool dominates a big part of the financial world, accounting for as much as half of U.S. stock market activity.

The Chicago Tribune says this prominent dark pool is run by Chicago Billionaire Ken Griffin's Citadel

The Chicago Tribune says this prominent dark pool is run by Chicago Billionaire Ken Griffin's Citadel Securities and has been targeting small scale retail investors.

And they're not wrong.

Dark pools are typically involved in payment for order flow (PFOF), where they pay broker firms to receive retail order flow.