Last Friday (March 18th) I made a post stating that Gamestop will rise by at least 15% over the next two weeks. Last Friday the close was 90.79 and we just hit 106.57, a 17% jump.

I'm not going to go into detail and explain how I made this call, but I am going to keep this train going and see how many correct calls I can get in a row.
