We are looking for an extremely experienced project manager and leader to help us shape and advance the strategy and roadmap for the experience surrounding the iconic Wu-Tang Clan album, Once Upon a Time in Shaolin.

This role requires expert experience working with artists and executing best-in-class physical experiences and products at media/tech or digital entertainment companies.

It will involve collaborating with and managing stake-holders and artists, detailed planning for digital roadmaps and physical build-outs and logistics, and ensuring we're doing everything we can to fulfill our mission to bring Once Upon a Time in Shaolin to the people.

You will:

- Collaborate with the creators of the Wu-Tang album and the PleasrDAO Labs team
- Develop, grow, and lead a team of creatives and contractors to make everything from NFTs to innovative listening experiences.
- Shape the roadmap for the future of the album.
- Inspire teams to build creative, engaging, and impactful experiences.
