I'm not going to sell, I am a 200+ owner in drs plus some in various brokers. But. But, I am getting fatigued by this wait. All this wishing and hoping and getting excited for every green day, every poop meme, every bankrupt post, SI update...it is getting old to me. I don't know if I am missing the "honeymoon" period of this whole era or what.

I messed up in the beginning, I bought on the 20th and sold, then bought again, thinking I was being a smart trader, taking advantage. I did that for weeks through the volatility in February and March. I wish I had bought in 2020 when I first found WS bee. I finally sat down and read all the DD I could and realized this was bigger than this day trading bs. I try not to post anything here, just in case, but I am glad to be a part of it.

I am struggling though, financially, emotionally, in my work, my relationships, my marriage. No one knows I own this stock, including my wife, I pretend to not know anything about when I hear it brought up. I have no one to turn to discuss it. I am not destitute, I own real estate and did ok, recently had some hiccups that I'm trying to work through. I used to think I was strong enough for this shit. I'm just doing poorly everywhere and feel no motivation. Maybe I know moass will happen and I'm not interested? Maybe I'm just going through a lull? I don't know.

I'm too foggy to even read this over and see if it makes sense. I don't think I'm depressed just stressed. I could sell and make all my problems go away, but I know I'll really be unhappy when it goes to infinity and I miss out.

I don't know if anyone feels the same, and I do not want your pity or your "hang in there". I'm in it forever if I have to be. I am just venting I guess. Damnit, I hate these posts too. I really don't want any responses, might as well just delete this post. I just have to put it out there. GME will be great moass or not. I am just....I don't know.
