A question that has never seemed to be asked by anyone to date yet somehow is one of the most important to ask:

How did Ryan Cohen become a Chairman?

Before we delve deep into this subject please read this following disclosure:

##I'm Retarded

We all know he bought into Gamestop towards the end of 2020 with a checklist of suggestions to improve it and turn the company around.

https://www.reddit.com/r/Superstonk/comments/n17k0h/ryan\_cohen\_letter\_to\_gamestops\_board\_of\_directors

We also know there was a vote offered to shareholders to decide who would sit amongst the board of directors and here we also see that the votes also included making Ryan Cohen the Chairman of Gamestop.

https://www.reddit.com/r/Superstonk/comments/mmpfq0/gamestop\_announces\_slate\_of\_director\_candidates

Now you're probably feeling smart about yourself after reading this but I'm sorry to bounce on your smooth brain but unfortunately that wrinkle you thought you had is alas not there. (not because I smooth dot out either with that bounce just moments ago)

You see, it isn't about how he got into that role within the company its all about how he became a Chairman.

Like how did he turn himself.... Into a Chairman.

Two words:

###Magic Man.

Ryan Cohen is a Magic Man!!

How else could he have turned from this:

To this:

Well here's a very rare picture of Ryan performing magic that took me 84 years to find on the Internet:

I also discovered that Sherlock Holmes is also an Ape, he left a poem in his Will that eventually got translated into a song by non-other:

#The Sherlocks

Pretty catchy song too...

And what are the lyrics?

#Lyrics

You're the ace of spades
But you're much more than a one in fifty two
Still I chase you
You're the razor blade
That seems to cut the air without a care
And I don't know how you dare

Hold on, I'm coming for you
Just tell me where to go and I'll come running for you
I'm doing the best I can
I'm not a magic man
And I know I get it wrong

Will you just do you worst
I feel I'm in a curse
The air is getting thicker and this balloon is gonna burst
We'll escape this rabbit hole
Then tell me where to go
Throw your cards up in the air
Let's start over again

Hold on, I'm coming for you
Just tell me where to go and I'll come running for you
I'm doing the best I can
I'm not a magic man
And I know I get it wrong

Hold on, I'm coming for you
Just tell me where to go and I'll come running for you
I'm doing the best I can
I'm not a magic man
And I know I get it wrong

###Your brain hurting? Don't worry ill break this down for you:

Ryan appears to be like an Ace of Spades - rare and sought after. (women ovulate at the mere mention of his name)

*But actually he's much more than a 1 in 52*

Damn right! He's more a 1 in 74169420.

But seriously, he's more than meets the eye, because he can perform magic.

*Still I chase You, You're the razor blade*

Ryan Cohen pulls white doves out of his magic hat and as he does, the crowd goes wild. He only does this trick when he feels it is necessary to.

People anticipate, and try to predict when he will tweet again, chasing down his next one like a competition to be the first to tell everyone else.

However he is sharp like a razor blade and will tweet, *cutting through the air* of radiowaves of the Internet data without care, because his magic disrupts the status quo momentarily.

*and I don't know how you dare*

This is Sherlock Holmes admitting he has no idea how to solve the reason why Ryan Cohen bothers to perform such masterful magic like this, so openly.

*Hold on*

A subliminal message found in several of Ryan Cohen's messages.

*I'm coming for you*

Ryan Cohen is coming to save us. Though some Apes I have peer checked this DD with have argued this is actually Sherlock Holmes expressing himself physically. Now seeing as this was written by Sherlock it does seem more like its him speaking here but I truly believe he is interpreting Ryan's subliminal message because.....

*Just tell me where to go and I'll come running for you*

That sounds more like a reply to Ryan by Sherlock. And what he's saying here is, What can I do to help you.

Which is almost like the saying, *Ask not what Ryan Cohen can do for you but what you can do for Ryan Cohen.*

*I'm doing the best I can*

#I'm not a magic man,

*And I know I get it wrong*

This right here, Sherlock Holmes reveals he knows what Ryan Cohen really is by calling him a Magic Man. He's saying to Ryan, please be patient with me, for I am a smooth brain in comparison to you. This is possibly the only real true revelation ever that Sherlock Homes himself admits he is a retard.

#Now for the second verse:

*Will you just do your worst*

*I feel I'm in a curse*

*The air is getting thicker and this balloon is gonna burst*

Sherlock growing impatient due to the length of time that has passed by. Expressing he feels he's in a curse. A bit like a Horcrux from Harry Potter. I mean, as a Magic Man, Ryan Cohen could indeed have captured part of Sherlock Holmes' soul before he died and placed it inside a locket to refer to in times of solace.

Now the last line is really important to what's happening now, *the air is getting thicker* - there's more information being sent around the globe about what's going on in the markets via radiowaves in the air.

*The balloon is gonna burst*, possibly because in Sherlocks time, a balloon bursting made more sense than a bubble burst for bubbles burst very frequently and in a short time span whereas a balloon takes much more time to burst and usually the higher it gets the weaker it becomes and therefore more susceptible to bursting.

##Which begs the question, Is Micheal Bury a retard?

*We'll escape this rabbit hole*

*Then tell me where to go*

*Throw your cards up in the air*

*Let's start over again*

Here Sherlock is telling Ryan about what he wants to do after Moe-Ass without ever stating Moe-Ass, such a poet!

He's asking Ryan to lead the way, to throw his cards in the air (to perform his magic) and together start over again or in other words start a new. A new system, a new market, a new way of life.

And then we get the chorus a couple more times to really bring home Sherlocks message that Ryan Cohen is a magic man.

###Still don't believe any of this?

Well ask yourself: How the hell is Ryan Cohen able to transform himself into stunning models - as show off in this tweet:

<https://twitter.com/ryancohen/status/1423766191311519747?s=20&t;=NsO7r75Lr4RbXorjFFhnnQ>

Dont answer, it's a rhetorical question.

###Magic! That's how! He's a Magic Man!

#For crying out loud the guy can turn himself into a chair!

Look for yourself:

Lastly, the number 741 is a magical number. When I stumbled upon this major breakthrough, I couldn't believe my eyes that Ryan Cohen himself allowed me to completed the sequence:

<https://ibb.co/T2PWmZy>

Just look at this guy:

<https://ibb.co/fqmCCVR>

He calls himself a Canadian, dresses like a typical Canadian lumberjack yet declares he has a small weiner, c'moooooon! He's not talking about his love length, he's clearly talking about his wand!

*Magical*

This concludes this grand discovery.

Dont forget to DRS your shares, if you can. If you can't, buy more shares with a Borker who allows you DRS and then DRS those shares instead.

TL:DR

Ryan Cohen is a master of 69D chess and all other forms of chess because he is a Magic Man or if you Americans prefer, he's a Magiclan.

I still don't know who this Ian fella is.

MODS WHY NO SHITPOST FLAIR??
