Holy apple verse!?

As you all know Apple has been working on AR (augmented reality) glasses for years. And there is speculation on a partnership between GME and Apple. GME now will have the marketplace with immutable and looping with Microsoft creating NFT games, and lending IP and likely have apple and Microsoft creating VR, and AR headsets apps etc. that would literally force the onboarding of most the market directly.

An easy way to capture the entire market share. Smart move, bye bye Facebook.

I also have would bet my life on the fact that Apple and Microsoft have competing "meta verse" designs for AR and what not.

I know we've discussed Microsoft's I believe but Apple is secretive and likely has something similar in the works.

What a play this would be for GME.

Happy 2s day!
