Hey all bought gme back when all the hype went down at like $55 and $280 and ignored it since.

I'm basically illiterate regarding stocks so I'm wondering are we still holding and thinking there is a shot for a big blow up? My dad is telling me to sell now and put it in savings cause supposed the market will go way down soon but I've held this long right so are we still in it?

Oh and am I fine just having my shares on TD ameritrade? Sorry if this is the wrong place or basic shit but I'm a simple ape.
