The charts aren't going to make any sense, even if we weren't regards.

We can watch the GME charts and grab our crayons and speculate during our lunch. We can see shapes that look like other shapes from the past or what we think the shape will be in the future. None of it makes sense, which means it isn't right, which means it doesn't matter.

DRS. Stop worrying about charts. Eat moar crayons. Call your wife's boyfriend over to take her out. To the moon 🟩 Happy Friday.
