Best proof I've gotten is "look at GME SEC report". I did, and they are using the same sources they did in January to report current SI. Current shown SI, as well all know, is not even close to being a MOASS spark.

Can anyone list a link of the top DD that proves shorts have NOT closed yet? I would really appreciate it. Thank you.

Edit: Is this getting downvoted by angry apes because I'm asking a legitimate question or by shills who don't want the truth uncovered? The world may never know.
