4-1 stockdividend awesome we have waited for this. The posts I read all show optimism, next week FOMO price will go up for sure.

So first things first, yes I think GME is a unique situation and demise of hedgies is inevitable. And it is always tomorrow.

I don't think the final Blow will happen right now tho, and I hope I am wrong.

What will the hedgies pull out of the high hat right now to drop the price? Suggestions?
