My second attempt was just as unfruitful as the first. Swimming is hard. A quick google search now shows me that Great Apes cannot swim, it is so clear in hindsight. That is why I will be buying a soft kayak tonight to attempt to paddle out to the Pirate Captain. GME Ape **epired** recommended bringing a bottle of rum to the Pirate Capt'n. Any other suggestions as to what to bring the captain? There is a screenshot on my post history that I want to print out and expand upon as well. I know there are some graphically talented apes among us. I want a Captain Cohen logo I can put on a bottle of rum. Will leave another Apedate when I have something to report.
