I know this should be simple and I thought having 1 or 2 wrinkles would help me set this up but I have no idea what I'm doing. Currently unemployed but I've noticed the activation fee keeps going up and up so I want to do this sooner than later.

I don't own any crip toe and don't plan to.. only investment I've ever made is GME and I want to keep it that way, but do I have to buy like $20 worth of ETH on some kind of platform and then transfer it? Or is there something I'm missing because it's not letting me buy anything on the LoopringWallet app.

Please help!
