About

Sarah Bond is the Corporate Vice President of Game Ecosystem @ Xbox, leading Microsoft's products and services with game creators across all Microsoft software and services, including Xbox, Azure, and Microsoft 365.

Sarah is currently serving as an Executive Sponsor for Blacks @ Microsoft (BAM), an employee resource group. She is also a Board Member at Zuora, the leading subscription management platform provider, and Chegg, the leading direct-to-student learning platform.

As the former Corporate Vice President of Global Gaming Partnerships and Development, Sarah was instrumental to Xbox growth – developing deeper and more strategic partner relationships, building Xbox Game Pass to a position of strength, expanding Xbox Game Studios, securing streaming rights for Project xCloud, and leading high-performing global teams.
