Hey all GME folks. This post is aimed mostly at euroapes since I beleive USapes dont have this issues. So, Ive been depositing on IBKR regularly since january after I decided to ditch eToro in order to buy and drs through IBKR.

Normally untill now I didnt have any extra fees from JPM bank , except from my (croatian) bank charging me 5$ for transaction. But today, I noticed 3 transactions on my foreign currency acc, all dsted at 15.03.2022., and all 3 of them exactly 13$, so JPM took 39$ from my acc for some reason. Unknown reason to me, and strange that after Ive seen these transactions, and sent them to my mail as a PDF document, I was unable to open them anymore, as if it was some broken file. Needles to say that description of transactions disappeared after a while, but 39 $ didnt reappear ofc.

Im going to the bank tomorrow for sure.

I wrote this here to see if anyone experienced anything similar with their bank after depositing to IBKR/JPM and hoping to hear some logicak explanation regarding this shitty business...
