All those who bought & held at least 1 share of $GME prior to/up to the day that the Buy button was removed, and were brave enough to keep at least one share of $GME in the 'hood...your share (s) will have to validated.

Smooth bold ass move if you have kept those shares tucked the entire time, and bought shares elsewhere.

If you kept your 'hood shares, bought elsewhere, and DRS'd...I say well played.

If you kept your 'hood shares, bought elsewhere, and did not/have not DRS'd...I say well played.

If you moved your shares from RH because crowd said so...please tell me that one of those DDs that told you to also cautioned that you should keep at least one share of ANYTHING in order to keep the 'hood account open. You did that, right? You've kept your account active..correct?

More to come...Vlad is fucked..Vlad will break.

Make your next move best move Ken...this round is just getting started.
