Has anyone else had trouble with Fidelity canceling your DRS order from last week? I submitted a request via the phone on 8 April and everything seemed legit. I wrote down my reference number and waited a week. Nothing happened so I called Fidelity today and was told my order was canceled. Their explanation was their system had an error last week and my order was canceled. I was reassured my GME DRS order would be resubmitted and should be in my Computer Share account between Wednesday-Friday.
