Dear ape. I can. I can write again.

English is not my first language. If something is written wrong, I ask you to understand.

I don't ask for money as was mentioned. Today's situation with payment is going better. I want to bring to the world what is happening in the war in Ukraine. I like to think how DeepFuckingValueden brought the idea of GME.

I'm sorry because I can't answer everyone at once but I see everything and thank everyone for your support. An important part of my posting is giving people real information about what we have. Briefly as we fight against the system and hedge funds but only we have an opponent in Ukraine with weapons and bombs. I want to show people life and social problem.

I'm not a politician. I am the same person who, in the heat of the rush, came to the GME project and now firmly believes that fighting against the hedge funds and fighting the war is the same thing.

AFTER GME TEAM I SCARY NOTHING.

I don't want to be famous because nobody knows what can be done next hour.

I post photos from different parts of Ukraine. From my friends.

First. I am a real ape but I can not follow the process since October. They started to press us since then. You can see my average price))))
