

Title: Guys and gals this pestering of Computershare with questions about sell limits is absurd. GameStop is splitting the stock at around $150 per share. You don't think they'll keep splitting as the price goes up to keep the price manageable for purchases??

Hi there! How may I assist you?

You at 6:19, Apr 5:

i have a question about selling

You at 6:20, Apr 5:

whats the maximum i can sell a single share at?

Danna S. at 6:20, Apr 5:

Thank you for bringing this to our attention.

Danna S. at 6:20, Apr 5:

May I know for which stock company?

You at 6:20, Apr 5:

GME

Danna S. at 6:21, Apr 5:

Generally, it depends on how many shares you would like to sell.

Danna S. at 6:21, Apr 5:

You have the power to choose how many shares it can be only 1 shares or all of the shares on the account.

You at 6:23, Apr 5:

maybe i wasn't clear in my question. what i meant was whats the maximum dollar amount so lets say GME goes up to 1 million a share, can i place a sell order for one share at 1 mill?

Danna S. at 6:27, Apr 5:

I see, you mean the maximum amount you can sell at one request? that depends. Because if you requested the selling over the phone then there will be a $25,000 USD over the phone sale limit.

Danna S. at 6:28, Apr 5:

But if you will do it online or via written then you can sell the shares even at that price.

You at 6:30, Apr 5:

ok just for the example. lets say GME goes up to 100 mill per share i can log in to my account and place a limit sell order for 1 share at 100 mill. will that go through as well?

Danna S. at 6:31, Apr 5:

Yes. You can sell up to that amount if you will submit the selling request online.

You at 6:32, Apr 5:

so basically theres no limit?

Danna S. at 6:32, Apr 5:

Yes if the request is done via online or written request.
