This evening I was reading a book about the solar system to my kid and had a nice chuckle to myself when we arrived at the 7th planet: Uranus.

Insert dog with flashbacks to Vietnam

hehe

My mind obviously wonders to Ryan Cohen's twitter feed as it typically will do at almost any moment and then boom. 741 right there on the page! Cohencidence? Maybe.

Some facts about Uranus:

1. 7th planet from the sun
2. 4 times larger than Earth
3. 1 spacecraft has ever flown by it: Voyager 2

Am I the only one that loves more 741 references.

Ok ok, tin foil off. Happy Tuesday morning eve.

See y'all on Uranus!
