- 1) We seem to have slowly inched to this price, instead of truly ripping.
- 2) The close price seems to be nicely within reach of retail FOMO. So that the average person could throw some money at this.
- 3) The community is all excited, perfect to disappoint.
- 4) GME it's still largely correlated with the other meme stocks.
- 5) The market hasn't crashed.

Happy to be priced wrong, thoughts?
