

Title: Classic MSM: If you're up, you should get out NOW. If the stock bounces back up for those who want to cover their losses, fine but GET OUT right after. Whatever you do, just don't HODL ■

Author: Creative_Radish_1210

Created 2022-01-15 15:59:23 UTC

Permalink: /r/GME/comments/s4nca8/classic_msm_if_youre_up_you_should_get_out_now_if/

Url: <https://i.redd.it/em904rfnjvb81.jpg>

What to Do With GME Stock

That's why I suggest getting out now if you've made money. If your position is currently a losing one, there's hope. GME is volatile. It could definitely rise again and cover your losses. Then get out.

But 2022 isn't going to be 2021 all over again. There are some real consequences coming down the pike. To expect that GME stock will rise to $300 or $400 again seems incredibly unlikely. An end will come just as almost everyone expects.

Don't be on the wrong side of that conclusion.

On the date of publication, Alex Sirois did not have (either directly or indirectly) any positions in the securities men-