Hey guys, I saw some guys talking about a new partnership (I dont want to promote them here, but its basically about a nft gaming platform). Does anyone have some sources? It looks really good if its true. Gamestop can really become dominant with regards to crypto/nft gaming if this partnership is true. I'm excited to see what will happen, but as of now it was just some randoms that told me this. Does anyone have any good sources? Can't wait to see what the future brings!
