I've been there from the beginning, went from WSB, to GME, to SS, and now every single time I comment or post anything there, I instantly get downvoted.

I'm a GME holder, and can't stand that sub anymore by the constant downvoting and single mention of ANY apprehension about the stock that I have invested in. Fuck.

Any comment I make on their live chat I have worry of getting banned or just downvoted to the depths below hell. WTF happened?!? I read Dylan's DD and it makes sense.

Just looking for some sense able people to bounce this off of.
