TL:DR - 10 months ago u/jumpster81 wrote up an amazing piece of DD on bust out schemes perpetrated by Bain Capital and Mitt Romney. It seems that Wall Street has some way of internally sabotaging companies they intend to short. It seems like BCG is one of the tools used by Citadel and possibly other firms to do this.

**IT GOES DEEPER THAN THIS THOUGH!** It's possible that the firms also defraud the companies IN BANKRUPTCY COURT. Also possible they intentionally take these cases to the Court for the District Of Delaware because the judges are in Wall Street's pockets. The BCG Case was filed in the Court of Delaware. If BCG case goes to Delaware, entirely possible that Ryan Cohen will lose or walk into a trap somehow

**The BASICS****

As u/jumpster81 wrote in his DD, the plan appears to be something like image 1, with similar conclusions being drawn today on the front page with image 2. A leveraged buyout is when someone acquires a company using a huge amount of debt (like 10% cash, 90% borrowed money) with the target company being posted as collateral. The target company is saddled with the debt afterwards. Jerome Powell himself made shit tons of money doing LBOs as I detailed in my video here:

Tons of evidence for this - as u/Longjumping_College pointed out today in his post BCG gave consulting 'advice' to Toys R Us and - Blockbuster. We all know how that ended up.

- KBT Toys inexplicably decided to not sell video game consoles like the Wii during the holidays and their sales dropped 20% during the holidays which is usually a hot time for toy retailers. Bad advice perhaps?

**Shit Gets Real (Scary)****

This is the stuff we already know for the most part. Now here's where shit gets really real.

I've been following this sub for a long time, I've read countless DDs. This guy has popped up a couple times here and there, Laser Haas. Didn't think much of it until today. Laser Haas is the former CEO of E-Toys - one of the companies targeted by Mitt Romney / Bain Capital. He's been blowing the whistle on the crimes they committed for a long, long time. His story is big and super hard to wrap your head around but essentially - Colm Connolly is currently the Chief United States District Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. He was ALSO Mitt Romney's lawyer and Bain Capital's partner and helped them commit the exact same types of crimes he's supposed to be currently prosecuting!

Laser claims that, when his company eToys went to bankruptcy court, the law firm that was representing his interests in the case (MNAT) were ALSO secretly working for Goldman Sachs and Bain Capital! This is totally illegal in bankruptcy court and it's a huge conflict of interest. You can read more about it here here and HERE. Proof that Colm Connolly worked for MNAT during the eToys bankruptcy case on the DOJ's website

**THE KBTOYS CASE WAS FILED IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF DELAWARE, SO WAS THE eTOYS CASE!! Click 'Court Docket' here:****

- <https://www.nbcnews.com/id/wbna28179348> for proof that KBToys' case was filed in Delaware.
- Laser explicitly stating that Colm and others are in the pocket of Bain Capital / Sachs / the powers that be

When I read that the BCG v GameStop case was filed in the court of Delaware, I got chills all over my fucking body. The corruption runs so much deeper than we can imagine guys. It's all a web of evil financial terrorism. I seriously hope that RC can find a way to get it out of the court of Delaware.

EDIT: It's being filed in Delaware because GameStop and pretty much every other company is incorporated in Delaware because of the lax business laws. That being said, it makes sense why the powers that be chose to take over Delaware court specifically and why they probably love Colm Connolly so much
