Another fucking year of bullshit where every single piece of DD has been wrong, and when it's when it's wrong everyone sweeps it under the rug and pretends that the community never cared about it.

The NFT marketplace did nothing. Splitting the shares did nothing. The German Markets did nothing.

Cohen buying and selling did nothing.

I've read about a hundred different catalysts this year in this general and all of them have done nothing but make the price dump. Now, I don't even see intellectual discussion about the stock. Just apes flinging shit at each other, pretending that everything is fine and comfy.

It's not fine, and it's not fucking comfy. For fucksake you can't even discuss the stock in a critical but thoughtful manner or you'll be downvoted

RC and Gamestop better put an end to this or me and lots of apes are out. No im not waiting another 3-4 years to lock the float.
