As the title states, finally registered my GameStop shares through ComputerShare. It seemed like a daunting task, but it was actually pretty simple. My questions are:

1. Were there any fees associated with transfer?
2. Should I wait until I receive a letter from ComputerShare to set up the account?
3. How long does the letter take to get to my house? I'm in the USA.
4. Is there any other info that I need to know that would help me out?

Any advice (financial or not) would be appreciated. Thanks!

Edit: 100 shares are on their way
