Hi all!

I went on and bought through Giveashare around April. Today I gave Computershare a call to ask about my letter, since I haven't recieved it yet, and they wanted to resend it.

Well, I grew impatient after the stock split VIA DIVIDEND debacle and requested expedited delivery and will do the same to get my verification code!

So my question to the elite DRS'ers of Scandinavia is as follows; Did you get you letter first try and if so did your adress contain ÆØÅ or any other form of special letters? If not did any of you request expedited shipping with an adress containing the aforementioned letters?

I feel like DRS'ing shares now that the split is done will put immense pressure on the depot banks "holding" the shares. DnB is using Citibank and that alone is enough for me to walk out with all my shares (xxxx). I am a bit hesitant when it comes to Nordnet as it is a tax exempt account until you realize gains and I am not in a position to take the tax hit anytime soon.

Just a last bit here for those interested. I made a Wise bank account that will let me purchase directly through Computershare in the future. As it stands I'm just accumulating cash on hand for when I have my account up and running. CBA to actually pay any commision fees to broker dealers that isn't even holding real shares.

Obligatory GME go BRRRRR insert rocket emoji
