BREAKING: As of 2:30 P.M. EST 7/29/21- Charles Schwab, Fidelity Investments and BlackRock all made massive increases in their $AMC stock position. All within the same hour. Clearly they saw what I and the rest of the Reddit, Inc. crowd saw. It's a huge opportunity to accrue a tremendous amount of wealth. All because of naked short selling, synthetics and hubris of cocky Hedge Fund guys.

This short squeeze is arguably bigger than the Volkswagen AG one a few years back. One analyst called it " The largest transfer of wealth in human history" What an incredible statement. Will be buying more. Poor Citadel is the bagholder.
