Hiya fellow apes

I've been using Cash Apps round up feature to invest my change into sweet sweet gme shares, and like the good appetite I am, I'd like to DRS, was wondering if anyone is familiar with the process there.

I have a TD Ameritrade portfolio I could use to DRS already, and just want to know if I should put the money out on Cash App to get a whole share and DRS there or just put it with my TD and do it that way.
