Hope everyone is staying hydrated.

I wanted to (re)share an archived version of some of the most popular DD on this sub, available offline in case any fuckery happens during the MOASS when Reddit decides to disconnect our banana phones. Here is the link to the PDF version of the archive with clickable links and easy to use navigation:

DD Mega Back Up

Each post has a hyperlink to jump to that specific content. Each post contains the original poster, within the table of contents, that also contains a hyperlink that will direct you to the OP! At the end of each post, there is a link to direct you back to the TOC.

Everything I have used has been credited to the OP of each post.

Disclaimer:

This is not going to be perfect. All DD is not archived. Only the most popular, or posts with most attention. Think of this as your 'MOASS Survival Kit' if or when things go dark. It's meant to keep your hands diamond.

I tried everything my smooth brain could muster in order to keep the correct formatting of each DD posted. Some of the pictures contained in DD posts will be compressed to save on space, however, most still contain their hyperlink that will redirect you to the full quality image. (May not work if Reddit shuts down.)

Hope you all enjoy it. See you on the other side! ■
