Guyz a simple question,

Some of my GameStop GME shares are with my bank/broker. I vote via proxy.

1. If I receive the voting letter, does it mean my shares are "real"?
2. Since I vote via proxy, is there a way to verify "what I voted"? I'm a bit paranoid that they might vote something else in my name.
3. How do I vote by myself via the web?

I copy pasted this again due to minimum character requirements
