

Title: I cannot comprehend people continuing to reiterate "A non-vote counts a vote 'for'" in every post about voting

I honestly don't care if you are right. The surest way in my mind to make absolute certain my vote counts is by actually voting. I find it so annoying that in every post promoting people to vote there are people in the comments spewing this garbage. If you want to take that route, do it silently, don't push others to NOT take a positive action simply because you feel it is a waste of time.

If there was any possible way that SHF could take advantage of inaction in regards to voting, then be absolute certain that they will. I certainly have never found myself in the situation of being invested in a stock that has a behemoth of MSM and big money doing everything they can to suppress it before (at least not knowingly). I take absolutely nothing for granted in this, nothing is an absolute certainty.

If I see these comments I will downvote them all day. I don't care if what you say is true, you are promoting laziness and taking for granted that we "have this in the bag".

One final thought to make this post qualify for this sub:

GameStop.
