Something fishy is going on here, there are so little posts and so many downvotes for some of them.

Maybe I'm bored and I need more smooth brained ape DD to kill my working hours but who knows.

A reminder that SHF never exited their positions they just hid them through derivative, futures, etf's etc and claimed they covered. They NEVER CLOSED their positions so there in no way they exited them. They're on the hook for hundreds of millions/billions of shares.

So relax and enjoy the ride fellow billionaire friends ;)
