Sorry if this has been asked before, my smooth brain couldn't find reference to it. Also disclaimer, I'm asking this genuine question because I'm actually expecting a wrinkled brained response, I'm not trying to generate FUD, I've been a XX holder since April 21.

If the Q3 report says that over 5 million GME shares have been DRS'ed, where are the 6 million that RC has registered to?

Or was the report just referring to the shares that have been registered by retail? As I assume RC does not count as retail?

Are RC's shares DRS'ed also by default? Would that mean that in practicality, over 11 Million shares are most definitely DRS'ed? Very bullish is so! Tits are jacked!!

Thanks to anyone who can answer my pondering question.

LFG!
